

Please do not change our no call status in Indiana it is the best thing that has happened . I hate to be interrupted from something for an unwanted phone call trying to sell me something.I have the right to choose where and when I spend my money and not be hassled into doing so by pushy people on the phone or by a computer calling me. I will never buy from people like that so by being on a no call list I am saving them and me precious time